Kentucky State Fair Announces Texas Roadhouse Concert Series Lineup

11 nights and 24 bands: from retro pop to alternative, Christian to rock, and country to R&B

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (July 6, 2020) —The Kentucky State Fair announces the third annual consecutive Texas Roadhouse Concert Series which will be held all 11 days of the Kentucky State Fair.. This year's free concert series includes a wide range of musical artists for a total of 24 bands. All concerts are free with paid gate admission to the Kentucky State Fair August 20-30.

COVID-19 Plan details:

The Kentucky State Fair Board presented plans for a modified fair that was approved by the Healthy At Work initiative on June 9. The concert area features notable changes including:

- Increasing the footprint of the concert area from 1.9 to 5.19 acres.
- Reduce the capacity to 42% of the 2019 capacity.
- Several projector screens will be added to allow for an extended seating area.
- Spacing of concert seating will go from 32 inch rows to 6 feet rows and 10 feet cross aisles.
- Concert area will be set up to comply with social distancing guidelines.

The COVID-19 plan will be updated and available for the public on the Kentucky State Fair website.

Tickets on-sale July 6:

Kentucky State Fair tickets go on-sale July 6 at Ticketmaster and in select Kroger locations across Kentucky. Advance admission is $7, advance parking is $5, and ride wristbands are $20 through Kroger.
