Kentucky State Fair Announces Texas Roadhouse Concert Series Lineup

23 bands over 11 nights, all included with fair admission.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (May 26, 2021) — The Kentucky State Fair announced the lineup of the Texas Roadhouse Concert Series at a press conference today. Performances range from rock, indie, country, Christian, and R&B. All performances are taking place adjacent to the Pavilion and Kentucky Kingdom. Concerts are included with fair admission.

"We're excited to welcome everyone to the Kentucky State Fair and Texas Roadhouse Concert series this August. We've got a great lineup with old friends like the Oak Ridge Boys and up-and-coming artists like Jameson Rodgers and White Reaper. Additionally, we have seven artists that are from Kentucky, which shows the incredible talent we have here in the Commonwealth. This year's concert series will offer something for everyone and be the perfect celebration after a year without many of our traditional concerts and events," said David S. Beck, President and CEO of Kentucky Venues.

Held August 19-29 during the Kentucky State Fair, the Texas Roadhouse Concert Series features a wide range of musical artists with a different concert every night. All concerts are free with paid gate admission.

"The lineup for this year's Kentucky State Fair Concert Series features something for everybody," says Texas Roadhouse spokesperson Travis Doster, "We look forward to being part of this event that brings people together to create memories and fun like we do in our restaurants."

Multi-platinum Nashville recording artist Josh Turner, is one of country music's most recognizable hit-makers. With a rich, deep voice and distinctive style, Turner is a disciple of traditional country music and one of the youngest members of the esteemed Grand Ole Opry. From his 2003 platinum-selling debut

"Long Black Train" to his most recent release "Country State of Mind," Turner has garnered multiple Grammy, Country Music Association and Academy of Country Music nominations. joshturner.com

Hailing from Lancaster, Kentucky, Alex Miller launched to global audiences during American Idol season 19. Miller's expressive voice lends itself to traditional country and his songwriting has been compared to early George Strait. His skill with guitar and lap steel is evident on stage, but he also plays ukulele, bass and banjo. The hardworking farm-bred teenager will graduate high school this year and start spending more time focusing on his music. alexmillercountry.com

At 12 years old, Ginuwine was already performing with a local hip-hop group. Skip forward, and it wasn't long before he had signed a deal with Sony Music. That's all it took to launch a career filled with multiple double-platinum LPs and hit singles on R&B and pop charts. www.ginuwine.com

Color Me Badd dominated the charts in the early 90s, with five singles from their debut album C.M.B climbing into the top 20. Their singles "All 4 Love" and "I Adore Mi Amor" hit the No. 1 spot. C.M.B. sold over 6 million copies worldwide and was certified 3x platinum. www.facebook.com/ColorMeBadd

Saturday, Aug. 21, 8 p.m.

Best known for his genre-fusing combination of country and rap, Colt Ford has charted six songs on the Billboard Hot Country Songs chart. The former professional golfer released his debut album "Ride through the Country" in 2008 which peaked at No. 2 on the U.S. Heatseeker chart. His next two albums reached the top 10 of the U.S. Country chart with his fourth album "Declaration of Independence" shooting to the top of the chart. coltford.com

Kentucky-born and Gospel-bred Elvie Shane released his debut single "My Boy" last year, which already moved up to No. 22 on the U.S. Country Airplay chart. A storyteller songwriter, Shane found his voice as an artist after penning "County Roads," an ode to his upbringing. From "Miles" to "My Boy" his songs are deeply personal, telling the story of his life one lyric at a time. www.elvieshane.com

Christian singer and songwriter Zach Williams is a two-time Grammy winning artist. In 2019 his second album "Rescue Story" featured the title single peaking at No. 2 on the Billboard U.S. Christian chart. A second single, "There Was Jesus" featuring Dolly Parton reached No. 1 on the chart and went on to win a Grammy. www.zachwilliamsmusic.com

CAIN, a trio of siblings Taylor, Madison, and Logan Cain hail from Alabama, where these preacher's kids first started singing as a family band. Their debut project was released last year. www.caintheband.com

Tuesday, Aug. 24, 8 p.m.

Hit after hit from the '60s and '70s, the Happy Together Tour unites some of the era's top artists: The Turtles, Gary Puckett and the Union Gap, The Association, Classic IV, The Vogue and The Cowsills.

Wednesday, Aug. 25, 8 p.m.

Popular nu-metal band P.O.D., best known for their hits "Boom," "Youth of the Nation" and "Goodbye for Now," has sold over 12 million records worldwide. Over the course of their career they have received three Grammy nominations, an American Music Award nomination, won an Echo Award for International Alternative Group of the Year and two San Diego Music Awards for Best Hard Rock Artist. P.O.D achieved mainstream success with their third album, which featured hits “Southtown” and “Rock the Party (Off the Hook)” which rose to No. 1 on MTV’s Total Request Live.
